My Journey with Lekha & the Next Gen Team

As a young Sistakaranam, eager to be a part of our community eco-system, I consider myself fortunate to have connected with the Ikyavedika team, very early in my journey.

A journey that began with Lekha through Mrs. Vandana Adivishnu, who introduced me to the team after connecting with my mother, who was already associated with the Women's Wing of SKA.

I started by contributing to the publishing of the Lekha Newsletter and, with the guidance and encouragement of the team, was later entrusted with the responsibility of Deputy Publisher. Since then, I have continued to support the team in composing and coordinating various pages of Lekha.

In 2024, when the Lekha Annual Awards were initiated, I had the opportunity to work alongside the team in planning and organizing the event. Over the years, this journey has given me the opportunity to explore different aspects of an event—from creating promotion flyers and certificate designs to preparing background slides, supporting program planning and taking up compering responsibilities.

One of the most rewarding parts of this journey has been the opportunity to connect with and meet Sistakaranams from different parts of India. It has helped me understand the diversity of talent, service and achievements within our community and has made the Lekha journey even more meaningful.

Alongside this, the Next Gen Team was formed to bring together younger members with fresh ideas and enthusiasm. This year, as we enter the third edition of the Lekha Annual Awards, I am grateful for the opportunity to take responsibility for the overall branding work along with the Next Gen Team.

The trust and encouragement extended to me over the years, particularly Mrs. Vandana Adivishnu and Mr. Naraharinath, have given me the opportunity to learn, contribute and gradually take on greater responsibilities.

I am sincerely thankful to all the elders and members of the team for giving me and the Next Gen Team the space and confidence to explore our ideas, learn through experience and do my bit for programs that benefit our community.

Happy Teachers' Day!

As I journey through life, I realize that a teacher is not always someone who stands in front of a classroom.

Some teach us through words, some through their actions, some through their guidance, and some simply through the way they live their lives.

My teachers and mentors have given me knowledge, but more importantly, they have helped shape my thinking, values, confidence, and perspective.

Life itself has also been a wonderful teacher, just like nature, reminding us to stay rooted, keep growing, adapt to change, and move forward with patience and resilience.

Today, I express my heartfelt gratitude to every teacher, mentor, colleague, friend and even every experience that has contributed to the person I am today.

The greatest lesson in life is to remain a learner.

May we continue to learn, grow, share, and inspire one another.

Wishing all my respected Teachers and Mentors a very Happy Teachers' Day!

With gratitude and respect.

We Must Fight... Willingly!

Samasta Aasesha Sistakarana bandhuvulaku "lekha
"hrudayapurvaka namassumanjali....

After a month bustling with wedding festivities, there was an expectation that an announcement regarding the unity meeting might be made.

However, I felt inspired to write this to help boost the self-confidence of the youth.

Hardships are like clouds in the sky; they inevitably bring tears. After a while, we recover, though it may seem like the trouble has paused. Whether that recovery takes hours, days, or years depends on our mindset. The sooner we emerge from such situations, the better. In life, one must endure both hardships and happiness. Cultivating the habit of pursuing goodness can help mitigate these difficulties.

Even Sri Rama—an incarnation of the Divine—could not escape a fourteen-year exile or separation from his wife. His journey was fraught with trials: the search for Sita, the agony of separation, and the battle to slay Ravana. Just when it seemed the troubles were over, new ones arose—slander against Sita, her banishment to the forest, and the inability to witness the cherished moments of his sons Lava and Kusa growing up. When did Rama ever truly experience a life of ease? If even he faced such trials, how can we, as ordinary human beings, expect to escape them? Instead of fretting over a hardship, we should focus on finding a way out. Every problem has a solution; we must identify the right path without wasting time. This is only possible when we keep our minds steady. Life is essentially the struggle to overcome adversity as quickly as possible and move towards a path of happiness. This struggle is inevitable for every human being; what matters is whether we face it willingly or with reluctance. Even a figure as great as Sri Krishna faced the accusation of stealing the Syamantaka gem. Hardships come and go, much like the ebb and flow of the ocean tides. Some people, even while basking in happiness, dwell on past hardships and cause themselves unnecessary distress. Instead, cherishing sweet memories would bolster one's mental strength. Constantly dwelling on past troubles only disturbs the mind and weakens it further. Living in the present is the best approach. One must believe that happiness follows hardship, just as light follows darkness. We should offer a helping hand and reassurance not only to family members but also to close associates whenever they face adversity.

Many people turn to God only when they are deeply mired in difficulties. They even question Him, asking if hardship is the reward for their prayers. God does not deliberately inflict suffering or bestow happiness upon anyone; we must remember that these are the consequences of our own actions. Kabir says, "Everyone remembers God in times of sorrow, but no one thinks of Him while immersed in happiness. If one were to remember Him even during times of happiness, would hardships arise in the first place?" This does not mean that merely remembering the Supreme Being prevents hardships from occurring; rather, it implies that He grants the strength to endure them. Therefore, placing our trust in Him—knowing that the responsibility of our deliverance rests with Him—we should cultivate the habit of accepting life as a divine gift.

Let us move forward with unity, embracing challenges willingly. May all our Shishtha Karana brethren prosper in happiness and well-being.

Hero of Inferno

All government employees, at the time of joining, take an oath of allegiance for discharging duties. A person working in fire services dedicates his life to saving lives or property burning in fire. We have a Sistakaranam who excelled in rendering his services as a Fireman and received many awards, including the nation's Presidential Award. Many times, he risked his life and saved the lives of those who got stuck up in fire accidents. After retirement, he started a new life, continuing the motto of service, and that landed him as the President of the Sistakaranam Association of Vizianagaram. Kantimahanthi Murahari Sanjeeva Rao, who is identified by the press as an employee having a fire. Let us listen to him and what he is.

Many awards to your credit. Tell us about them.

My unwavering courage in extinguishing the fire, sometimes, risking my life to save others accoladed me with awards and rewards at various levels. The AP government also awarded me a cash prize for my heroic service during the bomb blast incident that occurred at the Kanyaka Parameswari Temple on October 22, 1994. I received a certificate of appreciation from the then MP, Sri Botsa Satyanarayana, for promptly rushing to the scene of a fire accident in 'Konda Kerakam' village and successfully bringing the flames under control with ease. The government presented a cash award for saving government property during a severe fire accident that occurred on July 1, 2002, at the 132/33 kV substation near Baudara village in S. Kota Mandal. In 2009, I received a certificate of appreciation from Minister Botsa on the occasion of Independence Day in recognition of my outstanding services in Vizianagaram town 2010, I saved the life of Sri Surya Varaprasada by promptly rescuing him after he had fallen into a well in Lingadari Peta, Vizianagaram town and for this act, the government honoured me with a cash prize. The most memorable award among all awards was the Rashtrapathi's Presidential Award received from Chief Minister Sri Nara Chandrababu Naidu during the Independence Day celebrations held in Visakhapatnam in 2013. Rotary Club International presented me the 'Best Fireman' award in recognition of my service as a fireman.

After retirement, tell us about your social activities.

In terms of social responsibility, this involves founding the 'Sri Paidimamba Seva Satsang' organization and as its Secretary, I mobilized approximately 1,500 volunteers to provide services at various temples. I founded the Retired Fire Services Association and served as its Secretary. The activities included to visit members who were in poor health and, in the event of a member's untimely death, would arrange for immediate financial assistance of ten thousand rupees from the association to be handed over before the mortal remains was lifted. An unforgettable event that was organized by me on Pensioner's Day was by hosting a lunch for the pensioners of Vizianagaram as its Assistant Secretary.

After retirement, I dedicated myself to the social service and volunteering for 'hundi' (offering box) counting duties at the shrines of various deities including Lord Venkateswara at Tirupati 14 times. I also established an organization named 'Sri Paidimamba Seva Satsang' in Vizianagaram, through which I trained around 600 volunteers to assist with 'hundi' counting and other services at temples such as Annavaram, Simhachalam, Arasavilli, the Sri Paidimamba temple, and other local temples in Vizianagaram.

Father	: Kantimahanthi Venkata Krishna Rao
Mother	: Vijayalakshmi
Wife	: Bhagyalakshmi
Sons	: Gowri Sankar Ravi Sankar
Daughter	: S. Haritha
Native place	: Vizianagaram

In 2023, I was unanimously elected as the President of the 'Vizianagaram town Sistakarana Association' and organizing various activities, provide assistance to underprivileged members of the community and maintain a WhatsApp group for the association through which I share updates on various programs on a daily basis.

Who are the inspirators for your success?

I cannot forget the parents who gave me life when I reflect on my success; it was with my wife's encouragement after our marriage that I joined the Fire Department. Without her support, I would not have been able to achieve so many awards and accolades. My colleagues and superior officers also played a key role in my success.

Doing a job by adding a tinge of life risking is a point of noteworthy. Sri Sanjeeva Rao achieved this and stood as a hero. Lekha wishes him the best of luck in all his endeavours.

Voluntary Blood Donation under Mother Teresa Service Society and Blood Donors Club

B. Kishore, a young man residing at Ambati Satram Junction in Vizianagaram town, learned about the voluntary blood donation camps and other service activities organized by the Mother Teresa Seva Sangham and Blood Donors Club. He came forward to donate blood for the first time; he was taken to the Red Cross Blood Bank, and with the assistance of Blood Bank Supervisor Mr. M. Ramu, he successfully donated blood. On this occasion, the President of the Seva Sangham visited Kishore at the 'Electrovision' shop near Mulalantarla Junction—where Kishore works—to congratulate him on behalf of the organization and encourage him to continue his spirit of service. He was also honored with a shawl and a memento. A call was issued to all healthy individuals aged between 18 and 60—especially the youth—to follow Kishore's example by voluntarily coming forward to donate blood and thereby help save three lives. Association members, including Mr. M. Srinivasa Rao, participated in this event.

Kudo: From the Mat to Government Service

Last month's Lekha carried the proud news that Sensei Munganda Srinivasa Rao, a member of our own Sistakaranam community, serves as State Treasurer of the Telangana Kudo Association, and that the "7th Telangana State Kudo Tournament" drew over 200 students from more than 30 schools. What that report didn't have room to show is what Kudo can mean for a student years down the line.

The accompanying photographs tell that story vividly: a batch of national-level Kudo medallists — Sensei Sohail Khan, Sensei Priya Kumari Thapa, Sensei Vijay Deep Jaswal and Sensei Prateek Singh — have been appointed as Income Tax officers in Mumbai under the Sports Quota, receiving their appointment orders in the presence of Bollywood actor Akshay Kumar, who chairs Kudo's Indian chapter. It is a concrete illustration of exactly what last month's article described: Kudo is officially recognised by India's Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, and its practitioners have gone on to secure government positions in departments such as Income Tax, Central Excise, Police, Revenue and Postal Services.

Sensei Sohail Khan, Sensei Priya Kumari Thapa, Sensei Vijay Deep Jaswal and Sensei Prateek Singh — Kudo national medallists appointed as Income Tax officers in Mumbai under the Sports Quota, with Kudo India chapter chair Akshay Kumar.

This is the backdrop to a proposal now before several schools and colleges in Hyderabad. The Kudo Association of Telangana (KAT), affiliated to the Kudo International Federation India (KIFI), has written to institutions seeking permission to conduct regular Kudo MMA and Fitness classes on campus, through certified trainers, at times convenient to the school — before or after hours, during PE periods, or as an extracurricular activity. Beyond the sports-quota pathway, KAT points to the discipline's broader benefits: full-body fitness, self-defence skills, and the focus and self-control that come with structured training.

For institutions considering the request, the Mumbai appointments offer a useful answer to the natural first question — "what does this actually lead to?"

International Award for AISKA

A historic and momentous event unfolded at the divine abode of Sri Sri Sri Tridandi Chinna Jeeyar Swamy in Muchintal, Shamshabad, Hyderabad, a day destined to be inscribed in golden letters in the history of the Sistakaranam community. It is a matter of immense pride for the entire Sistakaranam community that the world-renowned organization, 'The Wonder Book of Records (International)', has selected AISKA for an international award. This recognition honors AISKA's continuous, selfless, and tireless efforts over the past few years: uniting community members scattered across the country on a single platform; preserving culture and traditions; instilling community values in the youth; supporting poor and middle-class families through educational, medical, and matrimonial initiatives; and successfully organizing grand events—most notably the unveiling of the Centenary Monument, a symbol of the community's century-long legacy of self-respect. It was truly a proud moment for the community when this prestigious award was presented to AISKA President Sri Dabbiru Krishna Rao Sistakaranam, a beloved figure and a dedicated social worker, by the revered spiritual guru Sri Sri Sri Tridandi Chinna Jeeyar Swamy amidst the chanting of Vedic mantras and grand celebrations.

This event was made a resounding success through the participation of distinguished individuals, including AISKA Vice President Sri D. V. Ramana Murthy, SWA President Smt. Rama Krishna Rao, and Sarvasri Tirupati Rao, Hari Gopal, Venkateswara Rao, Suman, Madhu, Naveen, Murali, and Mahipal; Smt. Gopi Ratnam, Smt. Padma, and Smt. Swapna; as well as the esteemed Sri Narender, All India Coordinator for 'The Wonder Book of Records'.

This achievement belongs not to any single individual or organization alone, but to every member of the Sistakaranam community. AISKA was able to secure this international recognition solely due to your blessings, cooperation, and encouragement. Viewing this as a triumph of our community's unity, I hope that we will continue to move forward with further service initiatives and work together in unity for the development of the association, ensuring that our community's prestige gains global recognition.

Yours sincerely,

Team lekha"s tribute to Rama Tata

We are all shocked and deeply saddened to hear the sudden demise of Sri Patnaikuni Ramakrishna Rao, who entertained the literary world with his poems and was affectionately called "Ram Tata" by everyone.

We are unable to digest the news that the "Lekha Sahitya Ratna" who was with us for two years at the Lekha Award function, entertained everyone with his singing, greeted everyone with a smile, and was popular on many literary platforms is no more.

We hoped that his health would improve and he would be with us again as one of us. But fate decided otherwise. We have lost a poet of great culture.

We express our deepest condolences to his family members and pray with all our hearts that his soul may rest in peace and prosperity.

A beautiful address for humor – Adivishnu,

(10-9-1940 – 6-1-2020) A Tribute on His Birth Anniversary

In a playful word... in a sparkling remark... in a sudden jolt, laughter is born. When a word flung sharply shatters, waves of laughter ripple forth with a resounding crack. Flowers of laughter bloom and waft their fragrance all around. What many do not have... and do not experience is laughter, when a fist-sized heart is filled with spite, conspiracy, and malice... and discontent and restlessness are added to it, where is the room left for time, opportunity... to smile in contentment. When one smiles with the pure, serene innocence of a baby, a radiant glow settles upon the face. The movement of muscles sends blood coursing swiftly through the veins; shedding impurities, becoming purified. That's why those who smile with contentment harbor no envy, only affection; they hold no impurity, only a jasmine's purity. When one laughs... when precious gems spill forth, a mind burning in the furnace of troubles & pain cools down a little, offering respite & relief from the intensity of that suffering. That is why laughter makes laughter laugh. That which examines the customs and lives of people thoroughly and reveals the human nature hidden within, is the art of humorous writing. Knowingly or unknowingly, in the vicious circle of society that has been built, the comedian feels pity for the self-inflicted lack of intelligence, thoughtless activities, and self-deception of those who are squirming like flies in the mucus, struggling with the foundations, customs, rituals, manners, and traditions of their peers, and tries to slowly pull them out of that toxic trap by giving them a sharp jolt. In this series of humorous works, his plays reflect the question of how far is the truth from falsehood? His plays demonstrate how humor can acquire the color, taste and smell of satire. Telugu festivals, the father-in-law, son-in-law's dowries & gifts, the wrong entrances of guests revered as gods.

Weaving together numerous such elements, like an ISI mark for situational comedy... Adivishnu stands as the care of address for healthy humor.

He was born on September 10, 1940, to Lakshminarasamma and Nagayya in Bandaru, (Machilipatnam), Krishna District. Their surname is Adivishnu. His name is Vigneshwara Rao. He first became a story writer under the guidance of Singaraju Rama Chandramurthy. His first Majili was published in Bharathi monthly in 1922. He wrote stories like Udaya, Collectaru Nannu Kshaminchu, Yadav, and Aggi barata. He has written many novels like Sagati Manishi, Manishi Mithya, Rakshasi Nee Peru Rajakiyama. In 1963, Adivishnu began writing plays with Araku Rani and continued uninterruptedly.

A beautiful address for humor – Adivishnu, (10-9-1940 – 6-1-2020) A Tribute on His Birth Anniversary

He has written plays like- Idi Aatma Hatya, Ashrayam, Bomma Borusu, Mr. Miser, Chavaka Bhartha, Manchuthera, Chudu Chudu Needalu, Rathi Manishi, Wanted Fathers, Pandagochindi, Athithi Devullostunnaru Jagrata, Vanda Notu, Nothing But Truth, Meenekta Dhan, Validdi Toh Tere, Magavari Mayalu, Raaji, Mee Intilo Puli Unda?, This is Bhramesiya, Neelanti Okaru, Morning Show, Andame Anandam, Atithi.

When Shivalenka Shambhu Prasad asked him to write a play for Andhra Patrika, he wrote the play This is Suicide Nai. At the request of K. Venkateswara Rao, he wrote the play Araku Rani. Although the plot of Araku Rani is woven around the character Rajani,

It is remarkable that the story is wonderfully led without introducing that character on stage. A man who cannot forget money and status cannot love. The play Chudu Chudu Needalu, written with the message that even if you love, you will be deceived, won the first prize in the Andhra Jyothi Diwali Play Competition. This play has been translated into many Indian languages under the auspices of the National Book Trust. Vanda Notu is a wonderful play that proves the truth that in an era when the saying goes that all human relationships are financial relationships, even financial relationships take precedence over attachments. Manchuthera is a play that explains how the current youth is ruining their lives with temporary passions and misunderstandings.

This play is special because students have performed it in hundreds of colleges. The play, which brilliantly depicts the dark thoughts of the old politicians, is so far away. This play was first performed by Malireddy Bobby Pa...Malireddy Bobby under the direction of P. Ranganath Rao. Later, Bahurupa Nata Samakhya Samajam performed it brilliantly under the direction of K. Venkateswara Rao and S. K. Mitro. The role of Kesava Rao was played by K. Padal, K. P. V. Prasada Rao, and the role of the poor poet was played by Mitro. The play Pandagochindi was performed by Desiraju Hanumantha Rao, Nutan Prasad, and Rallapalli. The play Asrayam was performed by film actor Chandramohan for more than a hundred performances. Beeram Mastan Rao, Naveen Lakshmi, and Raji performed the play extensively. The middle-class family has a toy for the rupee notes. If the toy falls, the weary heart will feel relieved, and if the toy falls, we will tremble with fear. The play Bomma Borusu was written with the theme of Siddhartha. The most important play among Adivishnu plays is Siddhartha. Gautama, who became disgusted by diseases... old age... deaths... sorrows and abandoned everything, became Siddhartha. But Gautama in the present day said that the world means money. He defined that the money created by man will kill man. The way this genius played on the weaknesses of people with his intelligence was wonderfully described in this play. Siddhartha was first written as a story in the Jyothi monthly magazine. Later it was written as a play. This play was performed by Kalanjali Vijayawada under the direction of G. S. R. Murthy. In this play, the role of Satyam was first played by G. S. R. K. Sastry and later by K. S. T. Sai.

Adivishnu, who made his film debut with the story of Balamitru, has written stories and dialogues for 50 films such as Idalokam and Ahana Pellanta. Sundari Subbarao and Kanne Vaasa. He won the Nandi Award for the best screenplay writer for the film Sundari Subbarao. Comedians should first read their work to their mother, sister and daughter. Adivishnu said that if they do not feel ashamed or irritated after listening, it is healthy humor. Adivishnu's specialty is to portray the characters that are seen in everyday life as they are. His writing style is to depict them without the intention of mocking them or imposing opinions. Adivishnu is adept at delighting the audience without giving morals. His specialty is writing casual dialogues. His special quality is to give satire quotes to humor. After talking for half an hour, a person who is not ashamed and addresses him as a close friend, "Guru!", is a testament to the sweetness of friendship. He wrote many 10-minute short plays under the names Chenukulu. Adivishnu, who brought humor to everyone through his plays, passed away on January 6, 2020.

Understanding Alzheimer's Disease - Dr. Kuppli Suresh Babu

Alzheimer's disease is a condition that adds a significant burden to the various physical ailments associated with old age. While forgetfulness is a natural part of aging, typically appearing in individuals over the age of 65, it stems from changes in brain function.

Causes: Alzheimer's is a primary cause of age-related memory loss. Contributing factors include head injuries, damage to brain cells, fluid accumulation in the brain, and extreme stress; heredity plays a role in up to 70% of cases. Other factors include poor nutrition, high blood pressure, and obesity.

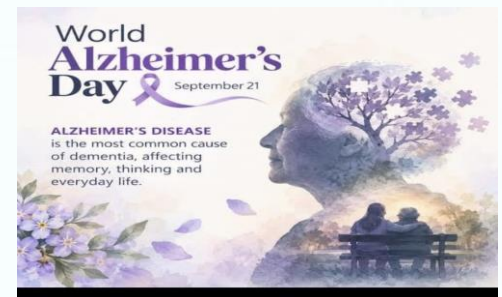

Symptoms: Symptoms include forgetting routine tasks, losing one's way home, forgetting one's own name or the names of family members (and failing to recognize them), and a decline in the ability to perform calculations. Individuals may lose the sensation of hunger or thirst, experience a loss of bladder and bowel control, and forget recent events while retaining memories of the past. They may forget where they placed items like eyeglasses or vehicle keys, repeat the same things over and over, and exhibit changes in personality, behavior, and gait. Confusion regarding social norms, Vitamin B12 deficiency, and susceptibility to anxiety, fear, and depression are also common. Precautions to be taken include: protecting the head from injury; engaging in brain-stimulating activities like carroms and chess; avoiding stress; and keeping blood pressure, diabetes, and cholesterol levels under control. It is important to note that forgetfulness alone is not sufficient to diagnose this disease. Dietary precautions involve consuming nutritious foods such as lentils, leafy vegetables, fruits, whole grains, and nuts, while limiting the intake of excessive salt, sugar, fried foods, and highly processed items.

Diagnostic tests include MRI scans, PET scans, and specific blood tests. Regarding prevention and treatment: there is no permanent cure to prevent or reverse the disease, though medications exist to provide temporary relief and reduce the severity of symptoms. Early detection and medical consultation can help mitigate the condition to some extent;

however, the exact cause of the disease remains unknown.

Dr. Kuppli Suresh Babu, Convener of the PMP Association of India (Visakhapatnam Chapter) and a community public health physician, shared this information to raise awareness on World Alzheimer's Day.

AISKA and Sistakaranams Associations

25.1 In the earlier 24 Parts, the coverage was briefly on Sistakaranam Charithra (History) from three books in Telugu, 90 years bilingual Story of All India Sistakaranams Association (AISKA) between 1920 and 2010, formation of AISKA in May 1925 in Jalumuru (then in combined Ganjam District of Madras Province) and its registration in 1947 under The Societies Registration Act, 1860 thereafter, Literary works of Sistakaranam Kavulu (Writers) for about five centuries, Sistakaranams Surnames and Gothrams, trending Social Media Networking (Facebook, WhatsApp, Instagram, YouTube, etc), Sikkho Korono Bhasha, Some Unsung Heroes, our long Struggle for BC / OBC Status and Charity Works / birth of Sistakaranam Ikyavedika - SKIV Trust - LEKHA and Annual Awards Sistakaranam Ikyavedika. In this concluding Part, an attempt has been made about various Sistakaranam Welfare Associations / Seva Sanghams in different States and other bodies from 1920 onwards.

25.2 Going back to Part 15 of this series, (published in October 2025) where we covered about Authors and Writers among Sistakaranams, here is an addition. Sri P. Lakshman Rao of Vizianagaram worked in the State Government as a Deputy Registrar and now retired. While in service, in 2004 itself he entered the literary world and wrote Poetry and Essays of different types and published twenty books. His works were studied by Dr Chukka Varalakshmi for her PhD (awarded in 2019) from Andhra University, Visakhapatnam. Titles of his books include Agni Vruksham and Chirudeepam. He received several awards at various levels including Gurajada Award during Covid19 Pandemic times, organised Literary Summits and special programs like Gurajada Jayanthi, Sankranthi Sambaraalu, Ugadi Vedukalu, etc on behalf of State Government. He is active in Social Media for regular interactions with younger generation in literary field. He travelled widely and attended six World Literary Meets and presented his works.

25.3 It was an interesting coincidence that 2020 AD was the Centenary Year for Sistakaranam Association of Kharagpur (in Bengal Province then) and also the launch of SKIV and LEKHA bilingual monthly digital newsletter followed by its website in April, 2021! The LEKHA maiden issue of December 2020 carried a Special Supplement, about formation / working of Kharagpur Association, which was the first of its kind in our community. This first association also underwent organisational changes at least twice in 1926 and 1983. India was governed as 17 Provinces during British Rule, which are currently divided into 28 States and 8 Union Territories. Our total population was about 25 Crores as per 1921 Census which is now almost six times standing at 148 Crores! Needless to mention about the Political, Geographical, Economic, Scientific, Technological and Social transformation the world, including India has undergone in past over one hundred years. It is a natural and ongoing process universally.

25.4 Today, we have about one hundred registered Sistakaranams Associations in seven States viz., West Bengal (1), Odisha (7), Andhra Pradesh (?), Telangana (2+1), Maharashtra (1), Chattisgarh (2) and Jharkhand (1) while our community is spread in at least eighteen States in India (other eleven being Tamil Nadu, Kerala, Karnataka, Goa, Gujarat, Madhya Pradesh, UP/NOIDA, New Delhi, Bihar, Haryana and Assam) as also abroad. The registration and working of all the Associations are guided by The Societies Registration Act, 1860 and the local State Acts like in AP, Telangana, Jharkhand, Rajasthan, etc. Though not mandatory, they are required to comply with State laws also and deliver services as per their Objectives, MoAs, Bye-laws and Rules & Regulations registered with respective State Governments, operate Bank Accounts, conduct meetings / elections, etc. Please click to view the eleven videos to know all about Societies / Associations in YouTube: The Society Registration Act 1860

25.5 The Societies Registration Act, 1860 allows seven or more persons to form a society for literary, scientific, or charitable purposes by registering a Memorandum of Association with the Registrar of Societies. The Act, (Act No. 21 of 1860) was enacted during British India to facilitate the registration of societies (also Welfare Associations) aimed at promoting literature, science, fine arts, or charitable activities, including the diffusion of useful knowledge and political education. The Act provides a legal framework for the formal organization of groups of like-minded individuals for public benefit.

25.6 Formation of a Society or Association entails compliance of the Act and to follow certain aspects like Minimum Number of Members (any seven or more persons can form a society), Memorandum of Association which must include Name of the society, Objectives of the society, Names, addresses, and occupations of the governing body members, Signatures of all members forming the society, Registration with the Registrar of Societies (or Registrar of Joint-Stock Companies in some jurisdictions) to legally constitute the society, Governance and Management. Societies can make bye-laws for internal management, and penalties for breaches of rules can be enforced through courts. Members are prohibited from receiving profits from the society's activities, ensuring that the organization remains non-profit.

25.7 In summary, the Societies Registration Act, 1860 is a foundational law for non-profit organizations in South Asia, providing a structured process for registration, governance, and legal recognition of societies dedicated to social, educational, and charitable objectives. Hence, it is imperative that all our Sistakaranam Associations at National, State, District, Taluka / Mandal or Village / Town levels should invariably be expected to be a registered body and completely compliant with laws of land and govern themselves in a professional manner.

25.8 Ideally, if each household of the Community or the head of the family is enrolled as a member of a local Sistakaranam Association, it would help ourselves in many ways. It is essential that we all enrol ourselves as members, pay membership fee regularly, attend all the meetings, elect suitable leaders as Office-bearers, strengthen the hands of leadership to work / fight for our legitimate rights from the administration as genuine tax-payers and exercise our franchise in the general elections.

25.9 Strangely, majority of us are not definitely aware of our community population data, with break up of men / women / children / physically challenged, orphans, widows, divorcees, literacy levels, employed / self-employed / profession engaged in and so on. If such be the status, how could our Associations make representations to Central or State Governments for BC / OBC recognition, issue of Caste Certificates, seeking admissions to Higher Education / Professional Colleges like Engineering, Medicine, Architecture, Pharmacy, Dentistry, NIFT, NID etc., through EAMCET / JEE / NEET, applying for eligible scholarships, employment benefits through competitive examinations in UPSC, Railways, Defence, Banks, PSUs, etc,?

25.10 A sincere attempt has been made in this Chapter to pool information on our Sistakaranam Associations for over a hundred years from the available sources. It is very likely that it is a truncated data only for reasons best known. During late nineteenth century, some Sistakaranam families migrated to Kharagpur to fetch employment in Bengal-Nagpur Railway Company Ltd (BNR, later South Eastern Railway). When we go back in history, it was during the British Rule in India, during the year 1920, the first Sistakaranam Association was founded in Kharagpur, Bengal Province (now West Bengal). The first President and Secretary were late Sri Dabbiru Venugopalram Patnaik of Jalumuru and late Sri Dabbiru Narasimha Sarma of Dimili respectively. Full story of its formation and working was covered in Issue 1, Volume 1 of SKIV's LEKHA maiden issue in December 2020 on pages no. 9, 10, 11 and 17 to 22 Lekha_03_Dec_2020 (6).pdf

25.11 Needless to mention that while the geographical and political status of India remained unchanged in next 5 years, but our Sistakaranam leaders of the then Ganjam District, spread in Bengal and Madras Provinces took a bold step in floating an All India Sistakaranams Association (AISKA). After prolonged deliberations and discussions for over two years, it was on May 30 and 31, 1925 this apex body was announced by our elders, who were mainly Teachers and Advocates, in their first national conference at Jalumuru, in Srikakulam. Knowing the freedom struggle the country was at its peak in those times, we all Sistakaranams community should be proud of the brave leadership for such a historical decision only to handle the welfare of poor / meritorious students and teachers. Names of our ten pioneering community leaders are

1. S/Sri Behara Suryanarayana Sarma
2. Dabbiru Anantha Jagannadha Rao
3. G Bheema Rao
4. Behara Shyama Sundara Rao
5. Behara Kesava Narayana
6. Vantharam Simhachalam
7. Garbham Appa Rao
8. Kottakki Somanna Patnaik
9. Ippili Appala Narsimhulu
10. Durgumahanthi Adinarayana

Series of annual / biennial Conferences were held by AISKA at various places like Kotabommali, Saluru, Dimili, Visakhapatnam, Vizianagaram and Berhampore where Sistakaranam families were concentrated. Of course, initially AISKA encountered several constraints and challenges from within and outside from time to time.

25.12 After conducting its first three conferences successfully, AISK suffered some setback and there was huge gap between the years 1928 and 1945 (Second World War ended then) when the fourth Conference was held in Berhampur. Prior to that, the State of Orissa was formed on April 1, 1936. Subsequently, the Bye-laws of AISK were detailed as 19 Clauses, in 22 pages, which were signed / submitted to the local registration authorities by S/Sri 1. D J Patnaik, 2. B J Swami Patnaik, 3. D S N Patnaik, 4. P S Prakasa Rao Patnaik 5. S N Patro and 6. P Ramamurthy Patnaik. On April 19, 1947, prior to India getting independence, AISK, Berhampur was registered under Societies Registration Act, 1860 as an all India Association with the Registrar in Cuttack, Orissa. A four page document with registration number 2/1947-48 executed by 20 leaders of Sistakaranam Community was duly affixed and issued by Govt. The applicants were S/Sri V Ramamurthy Patnaik, P S Prakasa Rao Patnaik, D Jagannadharao Patnaik, Suryanarayana Patro, Manipatru Krishna Patnaik, K Krishnamurthy Patnaik and Others. The logo of AISK was also designed and released.

25.13 As can be seen from the above chronological developments, Sistakaranams formed their Welfare Associations under Societies Registration Act, 1860 first in Kharagpur-West Bengal in 1920 by members of Sistakaranam families of Bengal-Nagpur Railway (BNR) Co Ltd, second was AISKA in Jalumuru / Berhampore in 1925 by Teachers and Lawyers, third in Jamshedpur-Bihar (now Jharkhand) in 1950 by TATA Steel employees and the fourth in Hyderabad (Capital City) - Andhra Pradesh in 1965 by State Govt employees. Please see page no. 229 of Sistakarana Bandhu Sreyobhilashi of AISKA about formation of APSKA Regn No. 88 / 1965 in Hyderabad. Subsequently, Sistakaranam Associations / Sanghams / Samajams were formed as Visakha District Sistakaranams Association (1969 / regd in 1974), Sistakaranam Seva Samithi, Bheemunipatnam (1970), The East Godavari Dist Sistakaranam Association, Kakinada (1971), Utkal Sistakarana Samithi, Bhubaneswar, Orissa (1971), Srikakulam Dist Sistakaranam Association, Srikakulam (1972), Taluka Sistakarana Sangham, Amadalavalasa, Srikakulam (1972),

Sistakarana Samiti, Rourkela, Orissa (1974), Sistakarana Samithi, Anakapalle (1978), Vizianagaram Dist Sistakaranam Association, Vizianagaram (1979) and Sistakarana Seva Samithi, Garividi, Vizianagaram Dist (1985). Welfare of Sistakaranam community was the major activity all these bodies were involved in, which in course of the past over one hundred years made them to form many more registered associations. In addition, some individuals also started Charitable Trusts in the names of their parents / family members.

25.14 The State of Andhra Pradesh leads the list with highest number of Associations, followed by Odisha, West Bengal, Jharkhand, Chattisgarh, Maharashtra and Telangana. No doubt, our population is widely spread in 11 other States too. A few families have gone abroad in search of opportunities in USA, Canada, UK, Australia, Singapore, Malaysia, New Zealand, Gulf / European Countries, etc as Non-Resident Indians (NRIs). An attempt was made in the year 2006 by the then President of AISKA, late Sri SV Ramana Murthy Patnaik of Berhampore to organise a few members in USA to enlist them as members and involve in our welfare activities but there is no tangible progress. Page no. 289 of Sistakarana Bandhu Sreyobhilashi of AISKA contains the minutes of meeting held on June 23, 2006 at residence of Sri Sukumar Patnaik s/o late Sri Prahallad Patnaik, former President of AISKA, attended / signed by a dozen members in USA. However, no progress has been achieved in this direction. The suggested website was also not created to network or communicate internationally.

25.15 Thanks to today's trending Social Media, our Sistakaranams have some Facebook pages, either directly or indirectly reflecting the activities of the Associations or otherwise. These are 1. 25.16 It is interesting that some registered or unregistered associations, groups, bodies etc., indulge in merely opening Facebook pages in the name of their Associations and do nothing further. These are in fact, neither dynamic nor serving the Sistakaranam Community through Social Media, thus making these pages simply dormant. If only they are effectively leveraged to network with their members through electronic media and disseminate useful information? Our community would definitely have benefited in caste / administrative matters, matrimonial purposes, connecting with NRIs for educational and employment opportunities abroad, Legal matters, domestic / foreign travel and tourism and so on!

25.17 Interestingly, we also have about sixteen channels in YouTube, directly or indirectly operating the affairs / activities of our Sistakaranam associations by certain bodies and individuals. These are 1. Sistakaranam Ikyavedika - YouTube 2. AP Sistakaranam welfare and development corporation - YouTube 3. Sistakaranam-Patnaik Official\(AISKA\) - YouTube 4. 25.18 Today, most of the communications and meetings are held online, through WhatsApp Groups, Google or Zoom Meetings, etc, while activities like Students / Teacher Felicitation Programs, Karthika Samaradhana Vana Bhojanas, OBC Meetings, Vivaha Parichaya Vedika (Matrimonial Meets) etc., take place in the traditional offline mode. Another recent development is that of welfare funding by groups like Sistakaranam Helping Hands / Lifting Hands as a Charitable activity. AP Sistakaranam Welfare & Development Corporation was constituted in 2020 with a Chairperson and 12 Directors for our community being a BC-D Caste. It was originally for two years tenure and extended for another two years. Interestingly, we also have two specialised bodies viz., Sistakaranam Railway Employees Association, Visakhapatnam and Sistakaranam Employees Welfare Association, Regd No. 267 / 2016, Vizianagaram in Andhra Pradesh. Some of the Sistakaranam Community Associations built Community Halls / Kalyana Mandapas in some districts like Srikakulam, Vizianagaram, Visakhapatnam, Anakapalle, Rajahmundry, Hyderabad etc but their effective utilisation is not visible clearly. A few members are also philanthropic and run Non-Governmental Organisations (NGOs).

25.19 The average or typical Sistakaranam community member is puzzled and confused at the division and differences in top leadership, particularly at the Apex level and State level in Andhra Pradesh. Unfortunately, we have three sets of leadership each in the two bodies of AISKA and APSKA. It may be circumstantial or due to affinity to political parties in power at State and Centre. While a senior leader Sri Dadhirao Satyamurthy of Vizianagaram, who held responsible positions in State Government service and also in community associations for long years, claims that he continues as President of AISKA with registration no. 2/1947 and runs a monthly news bulletin SISTA PRATHIBHA, since 2006. AISKA with a new registration number 117/1988 started in Vizag, is now split into two units; one is headed by Sri K Venkateswara Bannerjee s/o late Sri K L Bhushana Rao of Visakhapatnam, who himself led the association for long years. The second unit with same registration number was earlier led by late Sri S V Ramana Murthy Patnaik of Berhampore as President and late Sri AV Jagannadha Rao Patnaik as General Secretary till their demise a few years ago. Now, Sri Dabbiru Venkata Krishna Rao Sistakaranam of Hyderabad is the President. He and his team of about 60 Executive Committee Members from all over India are actively functioning and celebrated the Centenary of AISKA during the year 2025-26 by installing a Pylon in Jalumuru.

25.20 Similarly, as stated earlier APSKA originally was founded in Hyderabad with registration number 88/1965. It is since re-named as Telangana State Sistakaranam Association in 2015 after bifurcation in 2014. While it was actively pursuing the community welfare activities including demanding restoration of BC Status in Andhra Pradesh and representing to NCBC for OBC Status, another outfit with same name but with a different registration no. 63/1979 was started in Vijayawada / Machilipatnam, which again got shifted to Visakhapatnam. Two senior leaders viz., Sri SNK Mahanthi of Visakhapatnam and Sri Polumahanthi Umamaheswara Rao of Srikakulam are functioning as Presidents with their respective teams for long years. Only in the year 2025 a third team emerged, through an electoral process, led by Sri Akkumahanthi Nageswara Rao (Raja) of Machilipatnam. However, immediately thereafter, it was renamed as AP State Sistakaranam Welfare Association with registration number 215/2025 with a fresh set of Byelaws. Thus, we have three units of AP State Sistakaranam Associations. During July-August 2026 efforts were made in Vizag for unity among the three groups, to work for a common cause to serve the Sistakaranam Community.
